

Overcoming the biggest mistake
we make with our money ...

The biggest mistake is ...

Not aligning what you do with your money
to what's most important to you.

Money is not a goal.

Money is the sail
you use to get to
where you want to go, and the wind in the sail is your values.

How much money is enough?

Someday I'll ...

A photograph of a person sitting at a computer workstation in a library or office. The person is seen from behind, wearing a light-colored jacket. The workstation includes a computer monitor displaying a blue screen with the text 'obn om bij te blijven' and 'XAFAX'. The background shows a modern interior with white pillars, one of which has the text 'therman plein' on it. The overall atmosphere is quiet and contemplative.

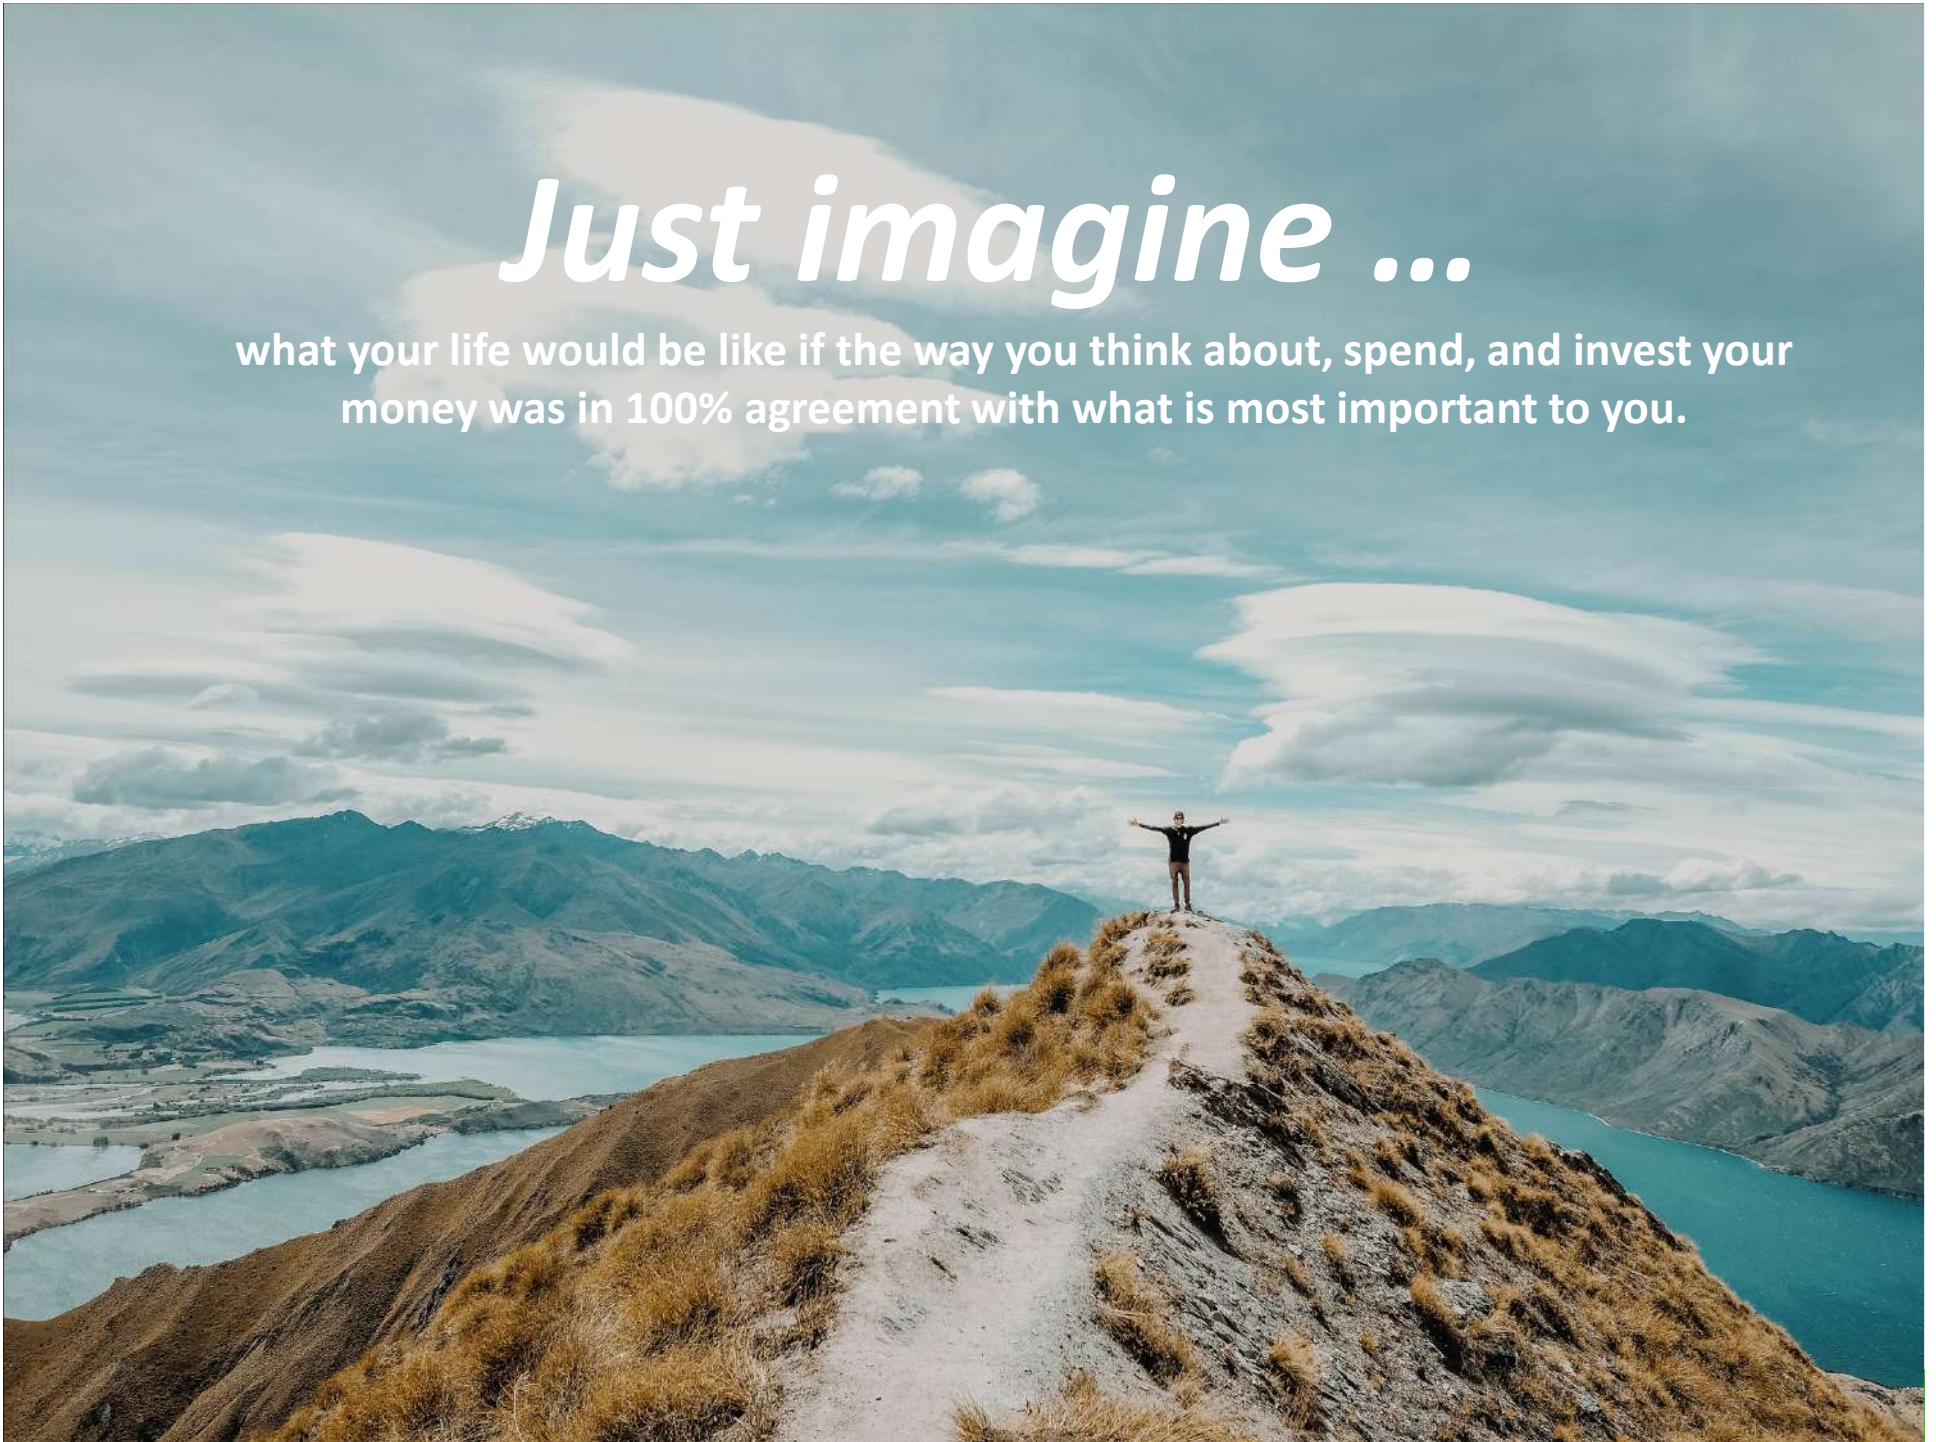

*What if "someday"
never comes?*

Clarify your values – what really matters to you?

Just imagine ...

what your life would be like if the way you think about, spend, and invest your money was in 100% agreement with what is most important to you.

Our role as your advisor ...

We put your life at the centre of the conversation – NOT YOUR MONEY!
We help you clarify what is most important to you, then develop a plan that helps you live your best life possible with the money you have.
